Conditions of Sale

1. Rejection of Bids. Any bid which is not commensurate with the value of the article offered or which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer if in his judgment such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

2. The Buyer. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for resale the lot so in dispute.

3. Identification and Part Payment by Buyer. The name of the buyer of each lot shall be given immediately on the sale thereof and, when so required, each buyer shall sign a card giving the lot-number, amount for which sold, and his or her name and address.

Payment at the actual time of the sale shall be made of all or such part of the purchase prices as may be required.

If the two foregoing conditions are not complied with, the lot or lots so purchased may at the option of the auctioneer be put up again and resold.

4. Risk after Purchase. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer and thereafter neither the consignor nor the Association is responsible for the loss or any damage to any article occasioned by theft, fire, breakage or any cause.

5. Delivery of Purchases. Delivery of any purchases will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

Deliveries will be made at the place of sale or at the Storage warehouse to which purchases may have been removed.

Deliveries at the American Art Galleries will be made only between the hours of nine a. m. and one p. m. on sales' days and on other days—except holidays, when no deliveries will be made—between the hours of nine a. m. and five p. m.

Deliveries at places of sale other than the American Art Galleries will be made only during the forenoon following the day of sale unless by special notice or arrangement to the contrary.

Deliveries at the Storage warehouse to which goods may have been sent will be made on any day other than holidays between the hours of nine and five.

Deliveries of any purchases of small articles likely to be lost or mislaid may be made at the discretion of the auctioneer during the session of the sale at which they were sold.

6. Storage in Default of Prompt Payment and Calling for Goods. Articles not paid for in full and either not called for by the purchaser or delivered upon his or her order by noon of the day following that of the sale will be turned over by the Association to some carter to be carried to and stored in some warehouse until the time of the delivery therefrom to the purchaser, and the cost of such cartage and storage will be charged against the purchaser and the risk of loss or damage occasioned by such removal or storage will be upon the purchaser.

NOTE: The limited space of the Delivery Rooms of the Association makes the above requirements necessary, and it is not alone for the benefit of the Association, but also for that of its patrons, whose goods otherwise would have to be so crowded as to be subject to damage and loss.

7. Shipping. Boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

8. Guaranty. The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly and endeavours therein and also at the actual time of sale to point out any error, defect or imperfection, but guaranty is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness, authenticity or condition of any lot and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing or imperfection not noted or pointed out. Every lot is sold "as is" and without recourse.

Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, and the Association will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued and in its judgment may thereafter sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby will become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without foundation.

9. Buying on Order. Buying or bidding by the Association for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph or telephone will be faithfully attended to without charge or commission. Any purchases so made will be subject to the foregoing conditions of sale except that in the event of purchases consisting of one or more books for one who has not himself or through his agent been personally at the exhibition or sale, any book may be returned within ten days of the date of sale and the purchaser will be refunded the purchase money therefor, if the book in any material manner differs from its catalogue description.

Orders for execution by the Association should be written and given with such plainness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot, and when the lot consists of one or more volumes of books or objects of art, the bid per volume or piece should be also stated. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Association, a deposit should be sent or reference submitted. Shipping directions should also be given.

Printed copies of the catalogue of any sale or any session thereof will be furnished by the Association at charges commensurate with the duties involved in copying the necessary information from the records of the Association.

DAVID YOUNG CAMERON

Contemporary painter-etcher of high merit. Born at Glasgow in 1865. He is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Painter-Etchers, and probably the youngest member of that distinguished body. Sir Francis Seymour Haden, its president, writes of Mr. Cameron with an enthusiasm which is unusual with him—hailing him as a hopeful successor to the masters of the previous generation, and cordially recognizing in his work that precious gift of personality without which all mere technical skill is in vain.

"In examining Mr. Cameron's etchings it is not easy to designate his forte. Meryon etched picturesque buildings magnificently, but his portraits are simply bad. Whistler has triumphed in a wide field, but he seems to care nothing for the restful charms of rural landscape—where Seymour Haden is supreme. Mr. Cameron already shows himself equally at home when delineating pure landscape, views of buildings and shipping, interiors, or portraits."—FREDERICK KEPPEL.

ALPHONSE LEGROS

"Born at Dijon in 1837, Legros has been amongst us since 1863. But it is not English life—or, indeed, any life—that has made him what he is. . . . He gives to masculine character nobility and dignity."—FREDERICK WEDMORE.

"This picture dates itself by the episode that the venerable monument sees unrolling before it; on the "place," covered as if by a trailing scarf of limpid shadow, one follows the expressive pantomime of an agitated crowd, protesting with arms raised to heaven; behind the groups in the brightness of the joyous sun the cathedral raises its tall façade."—CLAUDE ROGER-MARX—"Gazette des Beaux Arts," 1908.

"Certainly Dawn—Camel Patrol Setting Out, the first of the new series, must take a leading place among the artist's masterpieces, and I shall be surprised if it does not win its way among the classics of the art. For here is a rare perfection of artistic unity and harmony with actuality of impression, appealing to the imagination with the very expression of the scene. 'I can smell the desert in it,' said a distinguished soldier-artist to me, as he took the print in his hands and the magic of the etcher's lines lured his imagination back to the desert sands."—M. "The sea, almost, so to speak, his native element, is a strong and generally sad influence, and in the very original 1588 . . . we have a remarkably suggestive impression of the bleak, rocky, unfriendliness of the Aberdeen coast. And here the artist's imaginative vision is vividly expressed, for on these very rocks of Collieston, close to Mr. McBey's birthplace, a Spanish Armada ship was wrecked three hundred and twenty-five years ago."—M. "And at least two of these plates, I say unhesitatingly, are masterpieces. The Moray Firth is sheer delight . . . It is a sunny day and the calm sea is studded with fishing boats carrying the eye far out over the watery expanse, while the flight of two kites gives a sense of movement in aerial space. With vivid draughtsmanship the interest of this movement is concentrated chiefly on the tense figure of the boy, sitting apart from the rest, tugging at the kite-line. The children, all drawn with joyous and spontaneous naturalness, are most felicitously placed in the design." M. S., in "The Studio," 1915.

CHARLES MERYON

Celebrated French etcher. Born in Paris in 1821; died there in 1868. "But we must turn now to a great poet-etcher, one of the greatest masters that the copper plate has ever known and one of the most tragic and piteous figures in the history of art. When Charles Meryon after his sea-wanderings and his failure as a painter, found his true vocation with needle and mordaunt, his strange and weird genius, haunted by the mysterious beauty that the centuries had stamped upon Paris, expressed itself through an artistic record of her old buildings that was soundly while imaginatively picturesque, yet personally reflective to an extraordinary degree."—MALCOLM SALAMAN.

REMBRANDT VAN RIJN

Celebrated Dutch painter and etcher. Born at Leyden in 1607; died at Amsterdam in 1669. Pupil of Swanenburch and Lastman, but largely self taught. As we all say that Phidias was the greatest sculptore, Homer the greatest epic poet, and Shakespeare the greatest dramatist, so we are all agreed on the world wide supremacy of Rembrandt. In his own lines of work there is no one in all history to be compared with Rembrandt."—P. G. HAMERTON.

ANDERS ZORN

Swedish painter and etcher. Born at Mora in Dalecarlia in 1860. "But it is in his etchings that the art of Anders Zorn is seen in its highest vigor, creativeness and sureness of hand, whether these etchings be done directly from nature or are transcriptions of his masterly paintings. Lines apparently scribbled at random, and which might seem to harshly gash the copper-plate, result in a whole, which is strong, clear, and vivid, and the etchings present pictures expressing the most delicate and fleeting phases of expression and gesture."—HENRI MARCEL.
